WEDNESDAY, JANUARY 6, 1875.

Town and Vicinity.

CONCERT.—The first of Mr. Youmans' grand concert will take place this evening in the Town Hall.

TO-MORROW.—The High and Public Schools will re-open to-morrow. Pupils are particularly desired to be present at the opening.

CENTRAL COMMITTEE.—Mr. Willis' Central Committee had a meeting last night, when satisfactory progress was reported. The Committee will meet again on Friday night, when a full attendance is desired.

THE ICE.—Familiars crossing the river are advised to keep on the tracks, as there are bad spots in the ice, and a deviation from the road may secure them a cold bath, if nothing more serious.

PERSONAL.—Dr. Oranahytha and Judge Jellat were in town yesterday. The former gentleman paid a visit to our premises, the appearance and comeliness of which impressed him very favorably.

GOOD SPORT.—A farmer resident in Hungerford had splendid foxes not lately. In ten days, with but one dog, he killed ten foxes, the skins of which he sold to Mr. Dalnages. Foxes are reported to be very plentiful this year.

THE ENGINEERS.—The new engine sheds at the Grand Trunk are rapidly progressing, the new turntable being now in. Already from thirty to forty extra men are employed here, and soon an additional number will be located here, and the upper part of the town will find in this a great benefit to its trade.

WEEK OF PRAYER.—The prayer-meeting held yesterday noon in the Bridge Street Church was well attended, representatives of the various churches in town being present, and taking part in the service. Last evening the night meeting was held in the M. E. Church, Rev. Mr. Briggs taking charge. It is pleasing to observe the interest manifested in these meetings.

BOARD OF EDUCATION.—Mr. S. G. Batty, Principal of the Commercial College, offers himself for election as a member of the Board of Education, in Foster Ward. Mr. Batty would make a most efficient member of the Board, and we trust to hear of his election, and that of Mr. Newbery, both of whom address the electors through cards in our advertising columns.

A KICKING HORSE.—Yesterday afternoon, two gentlemen were driving in a cutter on John Street, when a horse, a slash from the driver for misconduct, and, apparently realizing this mark of respect, danced his hind legs in space for a few minutes, evidently enjoying the fun. It is quite possible that the proffered kick has been done, but not the quagmire suddenly bolted ahead, which caused the driver to run into the fence, thus checking the hitherto uncontrollable animal.

MR. LEWIS' MEETING.—Mr. Lewis' friends and supporters held a meeting for organization last evening in the Town Hall, Ontario Hall. The attendance was meagre and not the slightest enthusiasm was felt. In fact, we learn from one who was present, that it was with great difficulty that Committee could be organized, several persons declining to attend. The spirit of this meeting is an index to the hopelessness of the Grip cause in West Hastings, yet we ask our friends to relax no effort to secure the return of Mr. Willis by a large majority.

EASTERN FAIR.—Mr. T. Wallbridge, Superintendent of Public Affairs, is very energetic in his endeavors to make these Fairs, which certainly have not come up to what they should be—a success. With this view, he has met with the Directors of the West Hastings Agricultural Society, and secured their co-operation in making arrangements to secure a good show of stock at the Eastern Fair. Mr. Wallbridge desires to be notified in advance by feeders of the number of cattle they will bring forward, so that he may secure the attendance of buyers from a distance. As our Fair will have a few days in advance of that at Guelph, an excellent opportunity will be afforded to Eastern buyers, who can thus "take in" the two Fairs on the one journey. We repeat the suggestion made some time ago, that an accurate sale register be kept and the prices published, which would have an excellent effect in inducing buyers and sellers to attend.

The nominations of candidates for the Ontario Legislature in the three Ridings of this County, will be held by the Returning Officers named below and at the following places, on Monday, the 11th inst.:

FATAL FIRE AT SHANNONVILLE.

Burning of Doman's Hotel.

A MAN BURNED TO DEATH.

Rumors were afloat in town yesterday and this morning that a hotel in Shannonville had been burned down on Saturday, and that a man had lost his life in the flames. Enquiry, by daylight and with other views, has failed to elicit full particulars, but from a gentleman who passed through Shannonville this morning, we learn the following incomplete details:—The hotel, kept by James Doman, at the Grand Trunk Railway crossing, just below the Railway Station, and a short distance north of the Village of Shannonville, took fire on Saturday morning from some unknown cause, and was burned to the ground with all its contents. The proprietor and all the inmates excepted in their night clothes, with one unfortunate exception—a man named Henry Jackson, who was asleep in bed in one of the upper rooms, and could not be aroused. The remains, which were found after the fire, presented a horrible and sickening sight, the fingers having been entirely obliterated by the action of the fire, and the arms and lower limbs consumed, leaving nothing but the trunk and head. Jackson, who is a resident of the near part of the Township of Tyndevine, was a man of about fifty years of age, and leaves a widow and a family numbering ten, in poor circumstances. It is said that, when he met his unhappy fate, he was under the influence of drink, but this statement Mr. Doman, who kept the hotel, denies. A man named Stephen Young, who slept in another bed in the room with the unfortunate Jackson, states that he himself was aroused when the building was in flames. He jumped with nothing on but his night-dress, and received a scorching in getting out of the building. He made an effort to awaken Jackson, but did not succeed, and just as he got out of the room the roof fell in. An inquest will be held on the body of the deceased, when full enquiry into the circumstances of the disaster will doubtless be made.

A GOVERNMENT ACCOUNT.

NEW ORLEANS, January 5.—Jas. Jeffries, a member of the Legislature, has filed a suit in the United States Circuit Court against Gen. Sheridan and Emory for one hundred thousand dollars damages for ejecting him from the House of Representatives. A similar suit was filed by George D. Kelly, who was also ejected.

A large meeting of the Chamber of Commerce this evening adopted a protest against the action of the military in ejecting the members of the Legislature, and promulgating the statements of General Sheridan to Secretary Blakely.

NEW YORK, January 6.—A Washington special to the Times says: The information received by the Government from Louisiana is substantially the same as that telegraphed to the Press, except in one or two particulars. The statement of the Legislature, and the statement of the United States soldiers ejected from their seats in the Legislative Hall those persons who had no certificates from the Returning Board, is not corroborated, but, on the contrary, it is claimed that those men were left at the invitation of the military, without any forcible means being employed. It is also believed that the Press despatches, which reported the Legislature as having been expelled from the orders of Governor Kellogg, are not correct. Those who have sustained the course of the Government most thoroughly in its endeavor to restore the Kellogg Government, and who believe in the legality of Kellogg's election, and who hate the White League, are tired out with continuous failures to secure the desired fruits of interference.

ROLLING HAS FAILED TO TAKE ADVANTAGE OF THE fact that he has been extended to him, and his government is weaker to-day than ever before. Instead of peace being conveyed by federal action, disturbance and discord have been continually engendered, and the Conservative and White League elements laugh at Kellogg's Government and decline to recognize any authority existing in the State except Federal authority, and when that is shown they resist it to that extent which shows that their obedience is enforced of necessity. It is felt that the time has come when Congressional action is justified, and for a permanent settlement of the Louisiana embroils.

Board of Education.

In addition to the candidates already named by us being in the line of nomination as members of the Board of Education, are the following:

BURKEWARD WARD.—Messrs. William W. Northcott and Thomas McGinnies.

SANDERS WARD.—Dr. Tracy.

WATKINS WARD.—J. N. Youmans, A. Shearing.

KIRKENDALL WARD.—George S. Tickell.

FOSTER WARD.—William Watt and John Martin.

Correspondence.

(To the Editor of the Daily Intelligencer.)

SIR:—As a subscriber of your paper and as a resident of Belleville, I feel it my duty to say that in last night's issue, under the heading of "An attempted Trick Deceit," to pass without saying I am convinced that there is not a word of truth in the "attempted trick" set forth. I am also of the opinion that the "trick" has been over and over again fastened upon Mr. Sawyer's supporters. I can say, on behalf of myself and Mr. Sawyer's friends, that we are not in the least bit interested in the election of Mr. Sawyer, but we are interested in the election of Mr. Sawyer's supporters. I write this for the purpose of repudiating what is contained in the article, not only on behalf of myself, but on behalf of Mr. Sawyer and his supporters.

Yours, &c., W. J. DICKSON.

Success and Failure.

I confess that increasing years bring with them an increased respect for men who do not succeed in life, as those words are commonly used. I have known many men who have not succeeded upon earth, and it is surely true colonial force does not best drive and blimp in the hot blaze of worldly prosperity. I have known countless failures from a superior abundance of qualities in themselves, but from a conviction too sensitive, a taste too fastidious, and a self-forgetfulness too romantic, a nobility too retiring. I will not go so far as to say, with the poet, that "no sign" but the "marks of greatness" are at least evidences which "die and make no sign," but there are many that miss the triumph—Hilliard.

—Dorrell's health is still improving.

—Tollu Tolla died on the 1st inst.

—The Duke of Montrose died on the 1st inst.

—The winter ice-berg is formed at Quebec.

—They are eating green peas, fresh from the garden, in Savannah.

—The iron works of Hull, England, have struck work.

—Alfred has issued a proclamation of general amnesty to Canada.

—A heavy snow storm visited the north of England, on the 1st inst.

—Mr. Jobin was re-elected for Chatham by a majority of 50 votes.

—Baltic is afloat, having been stuck on snow storms and freight traffic is stopped.

MORNING DESPATCHES.

Authoritative Denial.

LONDON, Jan. 6.—The Times correspondent at Biarritz telegraphs that he is authorized to deny the report of a conversation between Primo de Rivera and Serrano, published in the Times of January 1st, in which the former was reported as insinuating of proceeding to Alfonso as King. On the contrary, Rivera, six weeks ago gave pledges of loyalty to the administration of President Serrano.

HOW OLD JIM DRYTON "SWORE OFF."

(Detroit Free Press.)

He came up town last night to drink the old year out and the new year in. There are men who can remember when he had a cottage of his own; in that was a warm and had a frank, honest face, when his children went to Sunday school and his wife was well clothed and carried a happy face. Old Jim found himself going, going down the hill, and almost in a year, he had changed from a rugged, lay-out, and no effort on the part of those who loved him could stop his descent. His house, his wife, his children, went, good clothes and happy faces disappeared, and wretchedness and misery moved into the old tenement-house on Beaubien street with him.

Old Jim meant to have a big drink. There was a good way toward the old year out. He had been drunk Thanksgiving night and when his boys were heard whispering that Santa Claus had not passed them by, the father became sadder and sadder. The bar-keeper knew him as he entered the saloon and called him by name, and his face was as familiar as the sight of the deacon from which he poured his beer.

"Wait a minute," said the bar-keeper, who was wiping off the bar, and old Jim sat down at once to the table.

Two young men came in and sat down with him. Jim was a good fellow, and they did not know what it was. As they drank their beer they spoke of the dying year, and of their resolve to be better men than of their last year, and finally one of them said:

"It's good news, if true," replied the other. "No one will mean the old year out, but his family. His wife and children are in rags; his home is a comfort, and if he only the folks would be helping them. He's the lowest drunkard in Detroit."

"Yes I've often wondered why he didn't jump into the river," replied the other. "I've ever got so low and ragged and mean as old Jim Drayton. I'll shoot myself!"

Old Jim heard every word. If he had had a glass of whiskey down he had leaped up and cursed them. But he was sober—so sober as he had ever been for ten years, and he made no move. Was he low and mean? Did everybody feel that way toward him? Did they really think his poor old house, his ragged children, his red face and watery eyes? Did men speak to each other of him as they did of his family—would his death be good news to the public?

"Do you want whisky or gin?" asked the bar-tender, but old Jim did not hear him. He had leaped back against the wall, pulled his hat over his eyes and was thinking. Drink had robbed him of his honest look, his frank tone, and his strength and skill, but it had not robbed him of his memory. He could go back over the decade and remember his pleasant home, his happy family, and his own honest independent feeling. Shame came with memory. He had not got so low but words could strike him.

Two or three other men came in, and while they were drinking one of them asked:

"Isn't that old Jim Drayton in the corner?"

"Yes, that's the old son," answered the other. "Wonder if he isn't going to swear off—ha! ha!"

The words struck old Jim again. They called up something of his old spirit, and he sprang out of his chair and exclaimed:

"I am going to swear off!"

"You swear off—YOU—ha! ha! ha!" he laughed the third.

WEST HASTINGS.

FORM OF A BALLOT PAPER.

LEWIS.

II. JOHN LEWIS, of the Township of Belleville, Merchant.

WILLS.

III. THOMAS WILLS, of the Township of Belleville, Clerk.

Mark your ballot paper X as above, in the blank space at the end of the last name, and your vote is sure to go right.

Put your mark X opposite the blue line on the ballot paper.

WEST HASTINGS.

A rather amusing scene took place in Trenton last night. The three candidates had announced that they would meet at evening, consequently there was a large gathering of electors, and Messrs. Wills,

Lewis and Graham all delivered addresses.

The feeling of the meeting was pretty even.

Mr. Wills' last meeting will be held in Ontario Hall this evening, when no doubt his friends of Mr. Wills who can conveniently attend come forward.

ONE DAY MORE.

Electors of Hastings? There is but one day more in which to work for the candidates of your choice. We ask our friends in the West Riding particularly, as these electors are named at the meeting, to reach these in the more remote sections of the County to leave not an hour unimproved. If there are any votes which have not been canvassed, see to it that there be no doubt left on the point as to how the voter will cast his ballot. If the whole vote is brought out, the majority in favor of the Liberal Conservative candidate will be such as to stamp emphatically

the condemnation by this important County of the corrupt Government which now rules the Province. The Grigs have been wishing to keep their courage up—a favorite pastime of theirs. They seek to influence by proclaiming their coming success to defeat, and it needs but little effort to get caught by our friends, as they can they wish, and as we feel assured they will do, to secure a triumphant and decisive majority.

Lumber Notes.

The receipts of lumber at Albany last year were 500,000,000 feet. There is held over this winter 98,750,000 feet.

The Lumberman's Gazette, in an editorial on checking the increase of the production of lumber, says: "The headlong race in production has come to an end; hereafter it is to be a close calculation of both ends of the operation—the selling as well as the cutting of pine lumber."

Black walnut is said to very scarce, and

Indiana, which forty years ago had immense forests of black walnut, is nearly stripped,

the farmers having used the costly wood for fence rails.

Two Mountains.—Another elevation of the standard has been hoisted. This time it is Mr. Wilfrid Prevost, of Two Mountains, who has consented to have his election voided on the ground of bribery by agents.

RETRIBUTION OF MR. GLADSTONE.—A

able despatch brings news of the retirement of Mr. Gladstone from the leadership of the Opposition. Mr. Gladstone is not a very old man, having been born Jan. 26,

1806. He first returned to Parliament in 1833, for Newark, and as a Conservative. He now sits in the House of Commons as one of the representatives of Greenwich, his colleague being Mr. T. W.

Boyd, a Conservative.

THE ISSUE.

The issue between the Government and its opponents is not a technical one. During the progress of the contest, which is now rapidly drawing to a close, the aims of the Government, of omission and commission, and their frequent inconsistency, have been made clear, and a verdict on the facts is asked from the intelligent people of this Province, to be given on Monday next.

The instrument, of which the charges have been fully proved, and which brought its large points in the expenditure without any corresponding increase of efficiency in the public service, and the deposition of 7,500 square miles of valuable inland lands without survey, with a fall Treasury, and to the consequent loss of the Province;

Getting rid of an inefficient member of the Cabinet by removing the Agricultural College to his door, (though a suitable site had been purchased) at an expense of nearly $40,000 to the Province.

Violation of the Public Works Act, by giving out various works, amounting in the aggregate to over $100,000, to his supporters without tender;

Committing a violent attack made on the freedom of the franchise, by white-washing

Mr. McKellar for his share in the Proton intrigue, after he had been condemned by a Committee of their own choosing;

Refusing to allow Parliament to take the control of the Public money which the Grigs argued, when in Opposition, had been usurped

by their predecessors when in office;

Charging the Orange body out of their rights, by allowing to lapse their Act of Incorporation, which had been passed by the House against the votes of four of the five members of the Cabinet, and at a future session defeating the measure;

Showing undue favor in the settlement of the loan fund difficulty, to constituents represented by their friends, and unnecessarily harshness to those otherwise represented, particularly this County;

Picking a jury to select a verdict in favor of a friend in need, and shutting off the defendant from obtaining access at such expense as he could not bear, evidence which, he asserted in a memorial to the Executive, would have proved his case;

Tyrannously refusing to give information connected with the public accounts, and refusing to answer a motion for the taking of evidence under oath before the Committee, which Committee was already packed with the most partisan of their supporters;

Payment of "hush money" to heads of families, in order to keep them silent, and in doing violating the constitutional principle which requires the passage of an Order in Council before monies entrusted to the Government even be paid out;

Unjust discrimination in favor of one constituency, when re-adjusting the representation, from corrupt motives, and at the direct instance of a member of the Dominion Government;

The issue, as we have said, is clearly a technical one, which, as we are saying it, we can predict that in North and West Hastings, where the Grigs have been ventured to put a candidate in the field

the people will render a verdict against our present rulers by electing as their representatives, Dr. Geo. H. Bortwell and

THOMAS WILLS.

West Montreal Election Case.

The writer of Current Events in the January number of the Canadian Monthly, refers in the following manner to the refusal of the Clerk of the Crown in Chancery to grant a writ of habeas corpus in the case of the election in Montreal West. He says:

"The gentleman (Mr. Pope), after consulting Mr. Fournier, the Minister of Justice, refused to obey the order and permit the writ. We have no hesitation in saying that this is an entirely correct exercise of discretionary power, for which no adequate reference, or even excuse, can be offered. If a safe-guard provided by law against fraud be taken away because it might make a provision, by which the high road to the republican achievement of ballot box stuffing, as Mr. White is wronged as a candidate when a right, to which he has legal claim, is denied him, and the constitution is wronged because he is wronged,

it may be misinterpreted by a candidate elected by the minority. It would be curious to learn from Mr. Fournier what advice he would have given had Mr. White been elected by a majority of half a dozen,

and Mr. Mackenzie had sought a scrutiny

from Mr. Pope. * * * Mr. Fournier

hardly has the best to prevent an investigation. He has been asked whether, after all, all, we shall reap all the benefits from the ballot it advocates promised us. It may turn out in the end that it has closed the door to one class of evils to let another in at the window."

MISREPRESENTATION BY CARROLL.—Advice

from New Orleans of the British Lumberman was hoisted, and it was announced by the names of Santa Cruz Island. The British mail ship Sand-Hill was afterwards attacked, but the results were dry.

COLD IN MONTANA.—They knew what weather it was in Montana, and they right mercury rose in the thermometer, and four

Chinamen were found half a mile from Helen to death. A keg of whiskey which they had with them was frozen solid.

Canadian Lumber.

An interesting account is given in the City Lumberman by Mr. Benj. Wink of the state of the lumber trade in Canada.

The facts and figures are detailed, while on the subject of the Ottawa Valley, the figures which relate to forty-eight mills owned by thirty-three different firms are as follows:

Town and Vicinity.

THE FIVE MARKET.—The far market is rather dull at present, though the transactions are considerable. Advice to the same effect reach us from Ottawa.

POLICE COURT.—There were no cases at Court to-day, and the officials enjoyed one more legal holiday. Wait until after election.

PROPOSED ENTERTAINMENT.—The Naples Standard states that Prof. Whitch, with his class of twenty-five pupils, proposes to give a musical entertainment in that town shortly.

LATE.—The Eastern mail train was delayed several hours to-day by a run-off near Brockville, by which no serious damage occurred. The mails were not received here until about 1 o'clock.

FOX HUNT.—The English Review says: "One day last week some half-dozen of our Nimrods started to the Point on a fox hunt, and had some capital sport. They raised four, killing two, and wounding one very badly."

ALBERT COLLEGE.—The Undergraduates' Annual will be held in Ontario Hall on Monday evening, February 15th, to consist of Essays, Debates, etc., also a sketch from a French author under the able direction of Dr. Wright.

DOGS.—One of the first things that strikes a stranger after coming to this town is the enormous number of dogs to be seen on the streets. Hundreds of ill-natured curs roam about with impunity, their owners or harborers setting the law at defiance. It is about time that the police were instructed to enforce the law, if the authorities desire that it should have any effect.

TEAMS.—Under the law which governs elections, no pay or promise of pay can be given for the use of horses and vehicles on election day. It is, therefore, purely a "labor of love," on the part of the friends of Mr. Wells, to supply such a number of vehicles as is required to bring voters to the polls. If all our voters are got out, we cannot fail of success in this contest. Our friends are, therefore, asked to contribute towards a certain victory by bringing out such teams as they can spare, and attending the final meeting of the Central Committee to-morrow night.

THE AMERICAN NEWSPAPER DIRECTORY. is an epitome of newspaper history. It is also regarded as an official register of circulation. This feature, requires the closest scrutiny to prevent it from leading to abuses. The plan, adopted by the publishers of the Directory, to secure correct and trustworthy reports, is rigidly enforced, and allowed to be made impartially. Successful publishers, who have something to gain by a comparison, are generally prompt, not only to send reports in conformity with the plan, but to send them with such information as enables them to weed out unsubstantiated statements of pretenses in journalism. The popularity of the book, and the general confidence in its accuracy and faith are attested by the numerous orders for advertisements it receives.

TRENTON HORTICULTURAL SOCIETY.—From the Trenton Courier we learn that on Thursday evening, Jan. 7, the Annual meeting of the Trenton Horticultural Society was held in the Town Hall, Trenton. From the report read by the efficient Secretary, Mr. J. Richardson, it was shown that the Society was in a most prosperous condition, and that the work done by it has tended to extend flower culture in a section in which it was formerly almost entirely unknown. Two very satisfactory exhibitions were held during the year, and still a goodly amount of cash is on hand. The following were the officers elected:—Dr. Day, President; H. Gill, Vice-President; J. W. Thompson, Treasurer; Jas. Richardson, Secretary. Directors:—Messrs. J. B. Christie, G. H. Gordon, W. T. Barker, C. Francis, Jas. Squier, Gilbert Jones, T. McCabe, Dr. Williams, and Rev. Canon Beardsall.

SUNDAY SCHOOL ENTERTAINMENT.—On Tuesday evening the children in connection with the Church of England Congregation at the G. T. R. Station in this town were presented with an Epiphany Tree, which yielded some 70 or 80 gifts. They were rewarded by vocal and instrumental music, addresses, and a magic lantern. The Rev. R. S. Farnes, of Christ Church, was present, and delivered an address. Apologies were given for the Revs. Messrs. Burke and Muckleston, who are away from town on church business. The evening passed off very pleasantly, and all adults and children, seemed delighted. We are pleased to learn that Mr. Mockridge's Sunday School is in a prosperous condition, and that his congregations are increasing; that he has secured a very eligible site for his proposed new church, and that it is intended to erect that church as soon as the ground opens in the Spring. We congratulate the Rev. gentleman on his success, and wish him continued and increased prosperity.

BOSTON PHRENOLOGICAL CLUB.—The concert given by this organization in the Metropolitan Hall last night was attended by a very large and enthusiastic audience, and the performance, and the organization as a whole proved to be what had been claimed for them—musicians of a very high order of merit. It would be vain to continue in criticism, which throughout would be of a thoroughly uncharitable character, the contented officers by saying that whilst a keen sense of pleasure was afforded by the excellence of the instrumental music, a little less strict devotion to the purely classical would have been to the general satisfaction of the audience. Miss Bryant, a very pleasing contralto, was warmly received, and deservedly enjoyed on two occasions. Her rendering of Lady Dufferin's beautiful

QUEBEC, Jan. 15.

There was quite a crowd in the corridor of the House of Assembly, waiting for the opening of proceedings by the Tanneries Investigation Committee. There was no business, however, and the Committee adjourned until next morning.

The Committee on Mortuary and Hygienic Statistics will present the draft of a Bill for the prevention of the transportation of the corpses of persons dying from contagious diseases.

The Gulf Ports Steamship Company's steamship Georgia, reported lost on the Triangles, about seventy miles from Portland, was insured for $40,000, and with the exception of $3,000 in the Quebec Marine Insurance Company, the loss falls on the underwriters in England. The steamship Georgia was an iron screw steamer of 700 tons. She was sunk by the ice above of the 6th of May last, was raised, docked and thoroughly overhauled and repaired. She left this port for New York on the 2nd of September last, to run on the New York and Bermuda line, on which route she remained until the beginning of November, when she proceeded to Portland, to run between that port and Halifax, which place she left at 10 o'clock on the 11th of November, with the mails, 15 passengers, and a general cargo.

REMEMBER OF BARLEY.—The Oregon Times of the 11th contains a table showing the quantity of barley imported into the United States from Canada, during the last three years. In 1872, the quantity was 4,141,211; in 1873, 3,087,373; and in 1874, 4,967,427 bushels. Of the imports, Oregon received 55 per cent.

MONTREAL.—The duties and collections received at the port of Montreal aggregated $3,772,729 in 1874 and $3,778,778 in 1875, an increase last year of $1,101,550. The tonnage of vessels, inward and outward, in 1875 was 81,833 against 82,030 in 1874. The value of exports showed a falling off in 1875, compared with that year being $25,453,453 as compared with $25,662,674 in 1874; this may be attributed in part to the lower values of many articles exported.

MONDAY, JANUARY 18, 1875.

Town and Vicinity.

POSTOFFICE.—The meeting of the Century Company has been postponed until Monday next.

TOWN COUNCIL.—The Town Council will meet at 11 a. m. to-morrow for the purpose of organization.

CHRISTMAS.—The crossing is now good at Cook's Ferry, near the Mohawk Church, between Mill Point and Prince Edward.

MEETING.—The annual meeting of the West Hastings Agricultural Society will be held in the Town Hall on Wednesday next.

NEW YEAR.—The date for the annual ball of the Chemical Fire Co. No. 4 is Thursday evening, 28th inst., instead of the 22nd, as published on Saturday.

POSTOFFICE.—The Elms do Muska concert troupe have been obliged to postpone their concert here until to-morrow night, owing to delay on the railway line.

LOUSE OF INVESTIGATION.—R. W. Bro. Lister, D. D. G. M., of Belleville, is announced to visit a Masonic Lodge of instruction in Belton on the 28th and 29th inst.

POLICE COURT.—No cases having been set down for decision to-day, and there being no prisoners for trial, the Magistrate found it needless to exercise his judicial functions this morning.

CLOSED.—All the shops where liquor is sold were closed to-day, in accordance with the law. So many shutters up made Front Street present a sort of dismal holiday appearance.

PIRATE ADVENTURE.—Mr. Andrew Barr, of North Maryburg, who accidentally cut his foot off about two weeks since, died on the 15th. He was a native of Port Ontario, United States, and had resided in Prince Edward about five years.

WESTERN ENTERTAINMENT.—The Western Literary Association will give a free entertainment in the Lecture Room of the Bridge Street Church on Wednesday evening. The programme will consist of readings, recitations and music.

MOONING.—Right W. Bro. S. Lister, D. D. G. M., will hold a lodge of instruction in the Masonic Hall, Napone, on Thursday and Friday next, at three o'clock in the afternoon and seven in the evening. There will doubtless be a large attendance of the brethren.

RECEIVED.—The Grand Junction Railway Company, for tenders for the line and stone for piers and docks at Belleville, for supplies of the same kind for abutments and piers for a bridge over the Trent at Campbellford; and for ties and fencing for the line between Campbellford and Hastings. See advertisement for particulars.

NARROW ESCAPE.—A Mill Point correspondent writes to the "Napone Echo": "A narrow escape occurred in the cedar saw mill at Mill Point, on Monday morning last, by which the lives of one of the boilers was almost lost, in consequence of low water, in the boiler. Had a few minutes more elapsed, it would have proved much more disastrous. As it was, however, the boiler was repaired, and the mill is again in operation."

THE LAST MEETING.—The last meeting of the election campaign were held on Saturday night. Mr. Willis spoke at a largely attended meeting at Hart House, where the money was distributed was very simple, and as was supposed, perfectly safe. A thousand dollar note was placed in an envelope and sent to the member of Congress with no accompanying communication.

THE INVENTION.—Lloyd, the famous map maker, who made all the maps for General Grant and the Union army, certificates of which he published, has just invented a way of getting a relief plate from steel so as to print Lloyd's Map of American Continent—showing from coast to coast—on one entire sheet of bank note paper, 60 x 50 inches large on a lighted press, colored, sized and varnished for the wall so as to stand washing, and mailing anywhere in the world for 25 cents, or unvarnished for ten cents. This map shows the whole United States and Territories in a group from surveys to 1875, with a million places on it, such as towns, cities, villages, mountains, lakes, rivers, streams, gold mines, railway stations, &c. This map should be in every home. Send 25 cents to the Lloyd Map Company, Philadelphia, and you will get a copy by return mail.

BOATMEN, JAN. 17.—The dry goods store of Messrs. Hafford & Co., at Lowell, Mass., was robbed of silks and shawls to the value of $55,000.

New York, Jan. 17.—Showing and very cold here.

This morning the captain of all incoming vessels reported violent north-west gales and boisterous seas on the Atlantic. In consequence of rough weather there are six European steamers overdue, although they are not sufficiently behind time to excite apprehensions for their safety.

Julia Willis, aged 80 years, was burned to death in her bed at 20 West 21st Street, yesterday. She was asleep and the other inmates of the house could not rouse her in time to escape.

The Tribune correspondent claims to have discovered the names of five of the six members of Congress who received bribes from the Pacific Mail, namely, Charles Hayes, of Alabama; G. Hale Sypher, of Louisiana; Boylston, of Kentucky; Daniel W. Voorhees, of Indiana; John B. Storm, of Pennsylvania. The first two are Republicans and the last three Democrats. The manner in which the money was distributed was very simple, and as was supposed, perfectly safe. A thousand dollar note was placed in an envelope and sent to the member of Congress with no accompanying communication.

VICTORY.

WAITING FOR THE VERDICT.

Glorious Triumph in Hastings.

GOOD NEWS FROM ALL QUARTERS.

Celebration of the Victory.

As we stated in our last night's issue, there was very little excitement in town during the progress of the voting, other than what was caused by sensational rumors put in circulation by Mr. Graham's partisans to affect voters in his favor. A good deal of credence was given to these rumors, as his circulators stood ready to bet money as proof of their truth; but Mr. Willis' friends did not take the bait. A good deal of credence was given to these rumors, as his circulators stood ready to bet money as proof of their truth; but Mr. Willis' friends did not take the bait. A good deal of credence was given to these rumors, as his circulators stood ready to bet money as proof of their truth; but Mr. Willis' friends did not take the bait.

As the evening wore on, returns from the country were eagerly looked for, and it was not long before the result was known. Mr. Willis was elected by a large majority, and the result was a glorious triumph for the Conservative party. The result was a glorious triumph for the Conservative party. The result was a glorious triumph for the Conservative party.

After the speaking was over, a slight snowfall occurred, and the streets were covered with a thin layer of snow. The result was a glorious triumph for the Conservative party. The result was a glorious triumph for the Conservative party. The result was a glorious triumph for the Conservative party.

By a little after 11 o'clock the streets were clear of the snow, and the result was a glorious triumph for the Conservative party. The result was a glorious triumph for the Conservative party. The result was a glorious triumph for the Conservative party.

THE GENERAL RESULT.

The elections of yesterday in Ontario have resulted in a glorious triumph for the Conservative party. The result was a glorious triumph for the Conservative party. The result was a glorious triumph for the Conservative party.

There have been some important gains in the contest which took place yesterday, notably in the two Ridings of Essex, Dundas South, and the two Ridings of North York.

But our gains are more than compensated by our losses in the other parts of the province. The result was a glorious triumph for the Conservative party. The result was a glorious triumph for the Conservative party. The result was a glorious triumph for the Conservative party.

THE HASTINGS ELECTIONS.

The result of the Hastings Elections is exceedingly gratifying. The Conservatives are in a position to carry the day. The result was a glorious triumph for the Conservative party. The result was a glorious triumph for the Conservative party. The result was a glorious triumph for the Conservative party.

In the North Riding the Ministerial candidate had a great advantage over Dr. Boulter. The result was a glorious triumph for the Conservative party. The result was a glorious triumph for the Conservative party. The result was a glorious triumph for the Conservative party.

By a little after 11 o'clock the streets were clear of the snow, and the result was a glorious triumph for the Conservative party. The result was a glorious triumph for the Conservative party. The result was a glorious triumph for the Conservative party.

The Fire Horse.

To learn the character, temper, and behavior of a new fire-horse which they have to ride, is no trifling affair to either driver or fireman. It takes months to discover to use the energetic expression of a veteran rider of the iron horse. "If she is good she is rare good, but if she is bad she is very bad." There is no more affection bestowed by the jockey on the finest racer than is on the locomotive—greater race than ever saw—by the engine driver, the knight of the fire-horse, and the fireman, the knight's trusty squire. The stable of the fire-horse is a sight which, once seen, is not easily forgotten. It is a building of immense size, lighted from the top, and divided on the floor into a number of stalls from 30 to 40 usually, automated.

If a fire-horse not actually belonging to the stable, always called a "foreigner," happened to get a commodation for a night, it is said that "she is sleeping there. The stable, usually known as "the shed," or "the straw shed," is mostly empty, or nearly so, during the day; but as the night approaches, the flaming steeds come in from their heavy toil, each to his appointed stall; while on Sundays, when, as is proper, they enjoy rest, the place is generally so crowded that the superintendent has to seat his wife to work in and care for all the little while after they have taken their places in the stable, they continue, snorting, groaning, and hissing, as if their lungs were still panting from the exertions of the gigantic labor gone through; but at length the wild and unearthly noises that fill the air cease gradually, till all is still and quiet within the vast building, where the dark forms of the huge fire-horses stand out like spectres in the dim light. There is deep silence for the next few hours, when the horses whose turn it is first to go to work again have to be groomed and fed. The function than this, and goes by the name of "the steam riser." He first brings the still sleeping beast her water, or sees that "she" has water, and then carries up from a neighboring furnace a large shovel full of live coals, and throws a quantity of fuel over it. Soon the flame begins to hiss and roar, and before long the first puff of steam issues from the nostrils of the iron horse. "She" is awake now, but not fully, in a capable yet of the power of motion. A couple of hours have yet to pass, after "the steam riser" has arrived on the scene.

three hour or three hours and a half before full strength, required for the coming day's toil, has been recovered. Now, and not till now, the riders make their appearance, the engine driver and his aide-de-camp, the fireman. Jumping on the back of their grand steed, they slowly lead him from the stable towards the place he'd work will begin—the station. On the way they take in more food and drink—perhaps of solid food a couple of tons weight, and then a trifle of 2,000 gallons or more—and then all is ready. The riders will gallop

Items of Interest.

The most solemn hour of human experience is that of death but of life—when the heart is born again, and from a nature heart becomes a heart of love! Who wonder that is a silent hour and perplexed.

For the first time in the history of Russia, dissenters from the established Church are recognized as citizens. The new law which makes this change affect about 15,000,000 of people, whose marriage have heretofore been regarded as invalid and who were debarred from many of the privileges enjoyed by the citizens of Russia.

She not only delivers the wood, but she shops and saws it too, and thus becomes the support of the whole family."

The project for a ship canal across the Isthmus of Darien, to connect the Atlantic and Pacific oceans, has taken a new aspect. Ostriches have been thoroughly domesticated at the Cape of Good Hope, and prove a very profitable investment. They are plucked every seven months, yielding feathers worth on an average from $45 to $60 from each bird. They live principally on corn and small grains, but will thrive where a mule would starve. Here is an opportunity for some one to open up a new and profitable industry in Kansas and Nebraska.

In addition, we may look upon the supply of coal in this region as practically inexhaustible. At a depth of nineteen hundred feet, passing through numerous veins of various size and quality, the so-called seventh vein was reached and was found to be thirteen and a half feet thick, and of excellent quality. Beneath this came alternate layers of slate and coal for thirty odd feet, and then the mammoth vein, twenty-one feet thick; beneath this again a layer of slate, and then what is thought to be nineteen feet of coal. Below them, it is believed, is the solid rock. Altogether, there is, therefore, a Warm Clothing.

The London Sanitary Record of Dec. has the following: "The extreme and continued severity of the weather has called public attention to the best means of protecting the fatal influences exercised by the lowness of the temperature on the vital powers of the young, the feeble, and the aged. Many suggestions have been made for the purpose of keeping up the amount of heat necessary to counteract the depression of the action of the extreme cold, of which, as we excel, if they equal, the sensible advice contained in Mr. Quawson's letters lately published in the Times is, "to keep the body warm by the employment of warm clothing, so as to economize the vital heat generated in the body, and to prevent the loss of heat by radiation." He pointed out the inutility of warming rooms to an excessive degree, and the same time wearing thin clothing, as the vital heat is generated in the body itself, and absorbed from the outside. It therefore becomes a question that must be decided, whether to keep the heat and to prevent the loss of radiation to the outer air. Experiments conducted by Dr. Krieger tend to show, that animal and woollen materials answer the pose more fully than any other manufactured materials. The same series of experiments also demonstrate that loose fitting garments tend to keep us much warmer than tight fitting ones. The reason for this is that clothing not only traps the air still around us, it also regulates its temperature so the heat that leaves our bodies heats our garments and they continually heat the air passing through the mesh and pores in the skin. We do not feel the loss of air which our clothing undergoes as we should feel the air to strike our surface without being previously prepared for it. The difference between the two is the balance the clothing within the material we are clothed in and of which the ends of our cutaneous nerve form a part. Inside our dress our temper-ture averages 75.94° Fahrenheit, which is kept in by rough, loose woollen textures, while garments of silk and linen should be avoided. Another correspondent also points out the value of the non-conducting heat of the body, and recommends the more general use of the cheaper kinds of and skins, especially for persons obliged to much in the open air. There can be no question as to the physiological soundness of recommendation. A fur is so arranged that its fine projecting hair intercepts a portion of the heat which is radiated, which flows from the surface of the body, conduction; the heat is thus held near the body, and the heat which circulates between the single hairs, the finer the hair of the fur, the more it takes up the outgoing heat, and, however cold the air may be, it reaches the of the skin as a warmed air. Furred animals in winter, when touched superficially, give a very cold sensation. It is only near the surface that their hair feels cold. The deeper or certain distance from the animal heat comes from the points of the hair, from which would radiate or be conducted into the air. The current of air in the fur cools the fur from its points towards the roots, and the deeper cold penetrates only a little farther into the fur, without necessarily reaching the skin of the same animal. It is to be shown in very simple manner, that the outflow of heat by the fur, contained in the fur within the dress, occurs through one route only—that of conduction. When a fur worn, no heat comes to the surface for radiation as soon as the fur surrounds the air. Every temperature of the water, and the circulation also sinks to a minimum, because at Fahr. under freezing point all formation of aqueous vapour already ceases, and nearly the heat in the fur and in the dress is employed to heat the arriving air, whose capacity increases according to temperature. The researches, made by Prof. R. P. Petersen, Dr. Krüger, and all go to prove the soundness of the conclusions arrived at by Mr. Rawlin and the Times correspondent, to whose recommendation in favor of fur clothing we have referred, and demonstrate beyond doubt to all persons, old or young, feeble or strong, who value the preservation of their health.

THE LEPINE STRATEGY.

Many persons who have read Ministerial journals upon this subject, are in a muddle about this Lepine matter and want to be helped out of it. In the first place we find Lepine arrested, tried and convicted of the murder of Scott, by the authorities of Manitoba. He is sentenced to death by the Judge of that province, and was pronounced such a case of unparalleled atrocity and without any palliation whatever. In the next place, we find that the Governor, for certain reasons of his own, has countermanded the execution of this sentence, and the forfeiture of political rights, all of which the Governor does of his own mere motion, and without the advice of his Ministers.

Opposition journals assert that the Ministry are responsible, and that the Minister has magnanimously taken the odium upon himself in order to relieve his advisers from a very disagreeable and precarious duty, and they quote the Governor's instructions to prove their position, which show that the Governor is to do all the pardoning prerogative without first taking the advice of his Privy Council. Now, he either asked for such advice, or he did not. If he did, what was the advice? And whatever it was, the Ministry are responsible for giving it. If they advised clemency, then His Excellency did not act upon his own responsibility. If he advised that the sentence should be carried out, then he did act upon his own responsibility in opposing their wishes. Now this is the very dilemma in which the Ottawa Government do not wish to be placed, for if they advised severity, it would hurt them in the Province of Quebec, and if they advised leniency, it would injure them elsewhere. The Governor was, therefore, the only pilot to steer them between this political Scylla and Charybdis. From the above it appears that the Ministerial lack did not pass safely through the troubled waters, unless the Governor did not ask for the advice of the members of the ship. Now if this were done, His Excellency did not only broke through the constitutional form of Government, but he also broke it, because beyond the powers conferred by his commission. Now, is not Lord Dufferin too experienced and statesman to be guilty of such a blunder as this?

The Globe feels this difficulty as well as others, as is evidenced in a leading article in that paper of the 20th inst., on this subject. We read it with more than ordinary interest with the hope that it would clear the matter up for the satisfaction of ordinary minds; we regret to say that in this expectation we were disappointed.

The position of the organ is simply this: That during the time of the disturbances, the territory of Rupert's Land was under the Hudson's Bay Company, that it was under the direct control of the Crown of Great Britain. From the 22nd day of March, 1870, to the 15th day of July of the same year, and since that day it has been under the Dominion Government; while Thomas Scott was murdered on the 4th of March, 1870, or prior thereto, before Canada assumed jurisdiction in that region. In other words, that when the crime was committed, the Imperial Government had the sole and only jurisdiction in the premises, and with when alone rendered the power to punish as well as the prerogative of clemency; that, therefore, Lord Dufferin acted not in his capacity of Governor of Canada, but as an officer of Her Imperial Majesty, in the clemency meted out to Lepine, and for which the Cabinet are to be responsible, inasmuch as in the present case he was neither obliged to act for nor act upon the advice of his Ministers, but he had only to obey, as he did, the instructions of the Home Government. This is substantially the opinion of members of the late Government to sustain the argument.

Now if this is sound constitutional doctrine, we are puzzled more than ever to reconcile the position formerly held by that journal, and the leading members of the present Ministerial party with its present justification. If the Imperial Government had had and has all to do with the affair, why did the Globe and its satellites in the present case he was neither obliged to act for nor act upon the advice of his Ministers, but he had only to obey, as he did, the instructions of the Home Government. This is substantially the opinion of members of the late Government to sustain the argument.

Now this is not all, as a worse consequence follows. The trial of Lepine must have been entirely outside of the pardon power does not lie in his hands.

in the Canadian Executive as it does in other branches. It seems to be absurd to argue that the prerogative of mercy could reside in one independent executive, and the power to award punishment could and should be vested in another independent executive. If, therefore, the Crown exercise the Royal clemency, independent of the advice of the Governor-General, because Lepine was not under Canadian jurisdiction at the time he murdered Scott, it follows that the Provincial Court, subsequently established, had no right to try him for such offence.

We ask, however, let us further absurdity by adopting the Globe's doctrine. If a full pardon had been granted it would be quite inconsistent with an extra-judicial pronouncement, as that might be the sole reason influencing the Imperial Executive. But there we have only a confirmation of sentence, which does not impede, but which in work justifies the judgment and sentence of the court pronouncing the same. In this recognizing the jurisdiction and authority of the court to try, sentence and execute, the Imperial Executive is not only justified, but it is also justified in its position, as the pardoning prerogative without any palliation whatever. In the next place, we find that the Governor, for certain reasons of his own, has countermanded the execution of this sentence, and the forfeiture of political rights, all of which the Governor does of his own mere motion, and without the advice of his Ministers.

NORTH HASTINGS ELECTION.

The vote recorded in the Northern Townships of the North Riding of the County of Hastings may surprise many, but when the influences which were brought to bear upon the result are taken into consideration, it is considered, there will be no surprise at the result of the voting. During the whole of the past year, every Government employee in that part of the County, from the constable up to the Collector, the police constable, the collector of the land tax, the collector of the poor rate, the collector of the highway rates, and the collector of the rates for the various parishes, were all in the hands of the Government. The Government had the power to remove any man from the road near Lake's road.

Mr. Wood moved that the Clerk be instructed to obtain for the municipality of Hastings and Montpelier, a copy of the Municipal Act, 1874.

Mr. Ashley said he had been unable to get a copy of the statutes for himself from the Clerk of the Peace, who gave him a copy to be left in charge of the Clerk for the municipality.

Other members gave their experience in the matter.

Mr. Wood said this was an exceptional case, the municipality being a new one.

The motion was carried.

THURSDAY, JANUARY 28, 1875.

Town and Vicinity.

NEW YACHT.—An "Alek" Outboard, the celebrated builder, is building a new yacht at Colborne. The new vessel will probably be seen here at the Regatta next fall.

CONVICTS.—The Council, after transacting a considerable amount of business, adjourned at noon to-day, to meet again on the first Tuesday in March.

MISSIONARY MEETING.—A missionary meeting, in aid of the Diocesan funds, is to be held in St. Thomas' Church on Sunday night. The Archbishop of Kingston and other clergymen will deliver addresses.

HIGH SCHOOL TRUSTEES.—The County Council having last year, decided to withdraw its grant to the Belleville High School, determined yesterday to discontinue appointing Trustees to that institution.

BIBLE MEETING.—The Anniversary of the Belleville Branch Bible Society will be held on Thursday evening, February 4th, in the Metropolitan Hall, not on Tuesday, as advertised last evening.

TO-NIGHT.—Do not forget that the first annual ball of Chemical Fire Engine Co. No. 4 is to take place in Ottawa Hall to-night. The ball is an assured success, a large number of tickets having been disposed of.

ERRATA.—In the notice of Flint & Holton's steam saw mill, published yesterday, the word "each" was omitted by the compositor, after the words "two engines of 60 horse power," which omission was calculated to leave a wrong impression.

CORRECTION.—In the report of the County Council proceedings yesterday, the motion made by Mr. Wood respecting the duties of care-taking, read "that the turnkey, C. W. Meyers," &c. It should have read "the 'goler,' G. W. Meyers," &c. Mr. Hyde is the acting turnkey of the goal.

WARNING.—The largest man who had the privilege of addressing a letter at a desk up town on the 27th inst., and at the same time took from the safe a sum of money, will return it at once, personally or through the Post Office, as he is known, or criminal action will be taken against him. Belleville, Jan. 28th, 1875.

PROTESTERS FROM FIFE.—A petition, signed by about 300 of the chief property holders resident on Taylor's Hill, was presented to the Town Council on Monday night, asking for additional protection from fire. As the prayer of the petition is a reasonable and just one, it is to be hoped that the Council will grant it, with as little delay as possible.

THE ROADS.—The County authorities are making use of all the means in their power to break the snow blockade. Mr. Farman has done a great deal of work, and is still busy. The weather is greatly against Mr. Farman's operations—such as that for the present it is not possible to keep double tracks open. In a very few days, should a change occur, double tracks will be opened on all the leading lines of road.

ATTENDED HIGHWAY ROYALTY.—Last night, Mr. A. Dunlop, an old and well-known resident of the town, when on his way home, was attacked by some ruffians near the Agricultural Hall, and severely injured. The assailants tried to take his victim's watch, but this they did not succeed in doing. Mr. Dunlop, though beaten almost insensible, managed to escape. Dr. Wilson was called in to attend him, and found him injured to a very serious degree. The assailants, who are so badly beaten in consequence that the precise extent of the injuries can hardly be ascertained. It is to be hoped that the desperadoes concerned in this affair may be captured and punished as they deserve.

The President and Vice-President were appointed delegates to the Provincial Show at Ottawa.

Police Court.

(Before A. Diamond, Esq., J. M.)

THURSDAY, JAN. 28.
Bobb Wesley who had been remanded for a week for drunkenness, was brought before the court and discharged.

The Order of Lending.—The order of lending of the election of a champion of the purity in the place of Major Walker, are now endeavouring to run an independent candidate, but have not yet succeeded in finding an individual willing to assume such a status.

The Riot in New Brunswick.

The riot in Carleton, New Brunswick, has resulted in bloodshed. The rioters, the Sheriff, and the police, are all in the hospital, and an officer of the law has been shot. A Frenchman was also shot, but he was not yet dead. Thirteen rioters were arrested, and are in gaol. A telegram from St. John, N. B., says: Preparations were being made to call out the military of Northumberland, and probably before many hours have passed an armed force will be marching to the scene of bloodshed.

Carleton is a town in the County of Gloucester, principally inhabited by uneducated farmers, numbering some hundreds. Their representative in the House of Commons is the Speaker, Mr. Timothy Warren Anglin, of the St. John Farmers, whose lighted and unvarnished articles in his paper against the school system of the Province have largely been the cause of the present riot.

Magnificent Present.

CONGRESS FILIBUSTERING.

NEW ORLEANS, Jan. 28.—In the Kellogg House of Representatives yesterday, several resolutions were made to the effect that there was no legal question of members of the Committee to examine into the books of the Auditor and Treasurer. It is said the delay was owing to the fact that the Attorney General had said that the investigation would carry no weight because of its illegality. A compromise of the present legislative difficulties is on the tapis, and is being pushed vigorously by the Kellogg party. This party has three members of their side; also, to have fifty-three members with Wilt in the chair. They go so far as to say that the Conservatives might not again be elected, and that if they would give sufficient guarantees that they would not attempt any revolutionary action and would respect the present Senate, and consent to Governor Kellogg, and not attempt to disregard him in place. The difficulty lies in the insufficiency of the guarantees offered by Conservatives. This is a question now under discussion, with a view to an arrangement if possible.

NEW YORK, Jan. 28.—Yesterday afternoon a meeting was held in the Chamber of Commerce by delegates from the Chamber of Commerce, produce exchange importers and grocery, board of trade, hotel and domestic exchange, and freight transportation association. Five delegates from each were to consider what action should be taken by the business men of New York in reference to the proposed deepening of the Erie canal.

Samuel B. Ruggles, of the Chamber of Commerce, presided, and F. R. Thibault acted as Secretary.

Resolutions were adopted, strongly endorsing the recommendations in Gov. Tilden's message that the canal be deepened to seven feet with the least possible delay, that examination of several canals be had with a view to disposing of them not at absolutely necessary, and that the question of enlargement is entirely to that of deepening.

A magnificent necklace and ear drops of diamonds, a present from the Khedive of Egypt to Gen. Sherman's daughter, in token of appreciation of the General's advice concerning the re-organization and discipline of his army, have arrived at the New York Custom House. They are valued at nearly a million dollars. Congress lately authorized their acceptance by the lady and her husband, Lieut. Fitch of the Navy.

NEW ORLEANS, Jan. 28.—Before the Congressional Investigating Committee yesterday, Major Lewis Merrill testified I have been stationed in Louisiana since October, part of time in New Orleans; have been in Shreveport, the rice country, and in other places in the condition, and without the presence of troops there is no telling what would happen. Colored men are terrified, and are constantly in fear of violence, while Republicans are persecuted. I know of no one who was not free expression of political views, and control was in the hands of a few men, leaders of the conservative or white society, who were determined to overthrow the State Government; there still exists a spirit of hostility to the Government; there is antagonism to equal rights; an impartial election could not be held in this country. He also testified he was preparing a report of all the massacres and political murders in Louisiana since 1865.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 28.—The House was still filibustering at 4 o'clock this morning, having continued in session all night. At one time Speaker Blaine called Coss to the Chair. The Democratic coalition, advantage of this, and worried Coss with points of order and Parliamentary questions, until Blaine was compelled to resume the Chair, and extricate the House from the noise and difficulty into which it had drifted, by calling for a recess among the members, and all laughed heartily when Butler and Randall were appointed by the Speaker to investigate the filibustering. The President is believed to be in favor of a proposal to have the last national Democratic platform read. Finally the calling of the bill began, and the House fell into its usual order.

PORT COLBORNE, Jan. 28.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 28.

Probabilities—In the middle states lower barometer, higher temperature, southeast to southwest winds, slowly and many western will prevail to-day, except partly snow in New York.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Jan. 28.—At noon the situation in the House was unchanged. The roll-call was proceeding. The body has a strong tendency to favor the Kellogg party, but that before that time 175 Republicans will come into measures, the House has not been without a quorum, since the contest began. The Democrats can spare about one-half their number for rest.

SPRINGFIELD, Ill., Jan. 28.—The session of the Legislature yesterday, was carried. An appeal from the minority, that the Louisiana resolutions which were moved and carried, under the previous question, be submitted separately, was accepted by the first resolution denouncing interference in the State affairs. The second denounces the growth of military power as fraught with danger, and declares it is especially dangerous for military officers to be elected to Congress or to the President's office. The third resolution, which was adopted, declares that the United States under control of the military and commands and military officers. The third resolution denounces interference in any State. The fourth continues the President for applying the Kellogg Government against the expressed will of the people of Louisiana, and especially condemns him for sending Federal troops to interfere with and break up the Legislature. The first resolution was passed by a vote of 132 to 77; the second by 77 to 62; the third by 137 to 67; and the fourth by 76 to 67.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 28.—The House resumed in afternoon. The voices of half a dozen reading desks were used by the continuous strain, and substitutes had to be introduced during the night. Intercourse between members of the opposite camp is friendly, but no attempt has been made to introduce any other than an unimportant bill. The floor of the chamber is strewn with torn and crumpled paper, and is sadly in need of a wholesome cleaning. As a rule, the members show no symptoms of fatigue. The roll call which is now in progress is about the fourth since the dead lock yesterday. 190 members voted on the last call.

The Senate Committee on Privileges and Elections this morning decided that the Kellogg administration should be recognized as the legal Government of Louisiana. The vote stood: Ayes—McKim, Logan, Anthony, Mitchell, Nye, Alcorn, Hamilton and Salisbury. Ayes—Alcorn, Hamilton and Salisbury. Ayes—Alcorn, Hamilton and Salisbury. Ayes—Alcorn, Hamilton and Salisbury.

STRAVING, N. Y., Jan. 28.—In the trial of Owen Lindley for the murder of Francis Colvin, at Baldwinville in Dec., 1873, Jas. Van Vader, an accomplice, went on the stand and told the story of the murder by Lindley and the sinking of the body in the Seneca river, and the disposition of the murdered man's money and securities.

WASHINGTON, N. Y., Jan. 28.—Mary Sullivan, an emigrant from Quebec, who had been residing in a deplorable and wretched manner, her husband, who was with her, escaped by stepping off the track.

MADRID, Jan. 28.—The Royalist army in Navarre is advancing on the Carlists, and has already captured several of their positions. King Alfonso is present.

LONDON, Jan. 28.—The steamship Braunschweig, of the Bremen and North German Lloyd, returned to Southampton in the forenoon, having lost all the blades of her propeller from coming in contact with floating wreckage.

AN AMERICAN RAILWAY TUNNEL THROUGH ENGLAND and France is again under consideration, a bill granting concession for this undertaking being now before the French National Assembly.

Chicago dealers, as per official returns, have sold 1,000,000 bushels of corn, 299,942 bushels of wheat, 1,251 bushels of rye, and 292,637 bushels of barley, making a grand total of 5,466,067 bushels.

The hygienic and mortuary statistics of Quebec are in favor of the almost immediate burial of persons dying from contagious diseases, as near as possible to the place of death, in order to prevent contagion.
